The Standing Committee on Defence on Manpower Planning and Management Policy in its 12th Report, made the following recommendations.

- (a) Proper upkeep of War heroes' memorials built by State Government in different parts of the country.
- (b) As army officers/Jawans are granted leave rarely, their family problems/works should be attended on priority by civilian authority.

2. The Union Defence Minister has therefore requested Government to issue suitable instructions to all concerned officers so that the problems of the family members of defence personnel are attended to on priority by the civilian authorities and we are able to honour our soldiers by proper upkeep of the war heroes' memorials.

3. In the above circumstances, all Heads of Departments/Officers are requested to ensure that prompt attention to the problems of family members of our jawans/officers of the armed forces be taken with top priority.

LIZZIE JACOB,
Principal Secretary to Government.
